NARRATIVE: This office has served the legal needs of the Elkhart business community for more than three-quarters of a century. It represents such local institutions as the school system, the hospital, the newspaper and the major banks, as well as the corporations and entrepreneurs that give the Elkhart business community its distinct flavor. The office is involved in all aspects of corporate and partnership law, as well as providing services to our individual clients. We have active practice groups concentrating in taxation, litigation, labor and employment law, creditors' rights, environmental, banking, financial transactions, municipal finance, government regulations at all levels, and estate planning and probate.

NALP is committed to helping make the legal profession accessible to all individuals on a non-discriminatory basis. NALP is opposed to discrimination based upon actual or perceived gender, age, race, color, religion, creed, national or ethnic origin, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, genetic information, parental, marital, domestic partner, civil union, military, or veteran status.
