

Matt O'Hanlon works with corporate policyholders to resolve insurance coverage disputes through tactical negotiation and litigation. He is dedicated to helping policyholders secure the benefit of the insurance coverage they purchased.

Matt's insurance coverage experience has spanned numerous types of insurance policies, including commercial general liability, commercial property, D&O, E&O, media liability, homeowners, cyber, event cancellation, and automobile liability, among others.

In addition to his insurance coverage practice, Matt is a seasoned business litigator with experience in virtually all aspects of civil litigation in state and federal court. As detailed below, such matters have included complex commercial litigation involving real estate disputes, creditor's rights, construction disputes, intellectual property, business torts, contractual disputes, unfair competition, and mortgage lending. He has represented companies and individuals in the real estate, apparel, entertainment, hotel and hospitality, financial services, aerospace, cannabis, and pharmaceutical industries, among others.
