Firm clients benefit from the knowledge and experience cultivated by the professionals in this energetic office, backed by the resources of a national full-service firm.

Our attorneys litigate throughout the country, advise on inventions, and negotiate multimillion dollar transactions, efficiently and cost-effectively offering guidance on difficult questions. We take pride in offering practical, real-world advice and in being leaders of civic and charitable organizations, institutions of higher education and bar associations, and educators of fellow lawyers.

Located in the heart of downtown, the office has a tradition of hard work and focused client service, and also of giving back to the Northeast Indiana community. We assist businesses with labor and employment, corporate, high-stakes litigation and intellectual property needs. In addition, our attorneys provide comprehensive legal services in, mergers and acquisitions, personal and corporate taxation, probate and estate planning, banking, insolvency and restructuring, real estate, and insurance recovery.

The energy our diverse group of attorneys brings to client service is also found in the community and volunteer work they do, as the entire office supports many philanthropic organizations in the Fort Wayne area.
