San Diego

Our attorneys are experienced in corporate law, finance, restructuring, litigation and the other vital legal areas that companies large and small need to grow and thrive, with a focus on helping companies, management teams and capital providers in the life sciences, healthcare and technology fields. Clients can rely on our attorneys who practice in the areas of corporate, litigation, finance, intellectual property, real estate and labor and employment law.

Barnes & Thornburg is known for opening offices based on client needs and an entrepreneurial spirit. With offices from coast to coast, clients in San Diego have access to the resources and client-centered environment of one of the largest firms in the United States.

We share a commitment to the communities in which we live and work. Many of our attorneys volunteer their time and provide philanthropic support to many arts organizations and other nonprofits located throughout California and beyond.
