Laura D. Seng
Partner

Laura Seng of the South Bend office spoke at a national training conference for the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics in Chicago on Oct. 7. This conference was attended by registered dietitians in independent practice who work collaboratively with physician practices and hospitals to manage nutritional health issues for patients. Laura's legal issues presentation focused on business formation, physician and hospital contracting, healthcare regulatory issues, and tips for working with healthcare attorneys. The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, an association client of Paula Goedert, annually requests Laura to speak at its conferences.
