Roscoe Howard spoke on the panel, “Show Me the Money! Monetary Sanctions in Corporate Resolutions,” at the American Bar Association’s (ABA) 39th National Institute on White Collar Crime at the Marriott Marquis in San Francisco. The panel discussed the various monetary components of corporate resolutions and explained how to obtain the best results on behalf of a client with respect to penalties, forfeiture, disgorgement, and restitution. In addition, the firm’s White Collar group co-hosted an event with BDO while at the conference, which was attended by over 180 guests.
