Los Angeles Times Commercial Real Estate Magazine Highlights Barncastle

May 19, 2022 | Los Angeles

The Los Angeles Times Commercial Real Estate Magazine has recognized Barnes & Thornburg partner Ryan J. Barncastle as a noteworthy senior-level executive in the commercial real estate industry. The publication will profile Barncastle and others' accomplishments over the last 24 months, including with major projects and deals closed.

Barncastle is a business transactional attorney with significant experience in several legal disciplines, including corporate, real estate, securities and private equity. A licensed real estate broker, his real estate practice includes representing institutions, investment companies, lenders, developers, brokers, operators and property management firms in connection with financing, syndication, acquisition, disposition and leasing matters.

The publication noted, "With approximately 15 years of experience advising sophisticated clients with complex real estate transactions, Barncastle has amassed a significant cross-border and international practice, broad exposure to a varied set of private equity investors, institutional real estate clientele, an emerging focus on institutional cannabis matters and an established role as the corporate legal advisor to entertainer and professional athletes in connection with their "dirt" holdings."
