I AM...

- An Indiana native, but lived in California and Michigan before returning to Indiana – I hope to retire to someplace tropical
- An empath, so negativity literally makes me sick
- A music lover of all genres and live music. I cannot play any instruments, but I want to learn the guitar so I can play Hotel California by the Eagles.
- Wanting to be on a game show because I love trivia! I am full of useless information.
- Part of a huge family and I am extremely close to ALL of them. It's not uncommon for 20 or 30 of us to vacation together at one time. Holidays are also CRAZY.
- A foodie of sorts, so I love to try new eateries. As a child who traveled a lot due to military parents, I was exposed to different cultures and restaurants. I learned that "I'll have the chicken!" works just about anywhere.
- A HUGE sports fan. I love all sports and grew up playing basketball, volleyball and softball. My husband and I recently played in softball and bowling leagues. These days I'm exploring yoga.
- A sci-fi fan. I love anything related to vampires and werewolves. I don't like zombies because, of course, they are not real.
- Very social and love meeting new people
- Very BLESSED
