Join us for Barnes & Thornburg's annual Dual Litigation seminar featuring two litigation programs on Thursday, December 1, 2016. You are welcome to attend one or both sessions and join us afterwards for a cocktail reception.

Session 1

Appellate Law CLE Seminar Program

CLE Credits: 2.5 Hours

Including .5 Hours of Ethics

Join members of one of Indiana's largest Appellate Practice Group for lunch as we provide a succinct and practical update on developments in Indiana and federal appellate practice including issues in electronic briefing and ethics. Discussion will include in-house counsel representation and perspective.

Presenters are: Brian Casey, Deborah Pollack-Milgate, Leah Siegel, Kara Kapke, Chris Bayh, Jessica Lindeman, Mark Crandley, Peter Rusthoven

Session 2

Government Litigation Update

CLE Credits: 2.5 Hours

Including .5 Hours of Ethics

Join members of Barnes & Thornburg's Government Litigation Practice Group for an update on developments that impact local governments including utilities, eminent domain, environmental issues, employment law and ethics.

Presenters are: Nick Kile, Jackie Gessner, Bart Karwath, Tim Haley and Mark Crandley
