Barnes & Thornburg presents its fourth annual CLE devoted exclusively to critical developments in e-discovery and knowledge management. Join us – in person or via webinar – for an interactive and informative session looking back on 2017 and looking ahead to 2018.

GDPR: Are You Ready?

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) goes into effect in May 2018, and will have significant impact on all entities who interact with European data, including but not limited to employee and customer data. What is the GDPR? Why should you care about GDPR? What impact could it have on your business? What should you be doing to prepare for the GDPR going into effect? We will outline key U.S. and International implications and equip you with practical compliance strategies.

Hot Trends and Case Law Update: What You Need to Know!

Data breaches, discovery sanctions, and A.I., oh my! 2017 has brought significant developments and continued evolution in the world of eDiscovery and knowledge management. The daily headlines consistently point to data implications effecting businesses and their clients. What key 2017 decisions and technological advancements will impact how you safely and cost-effectively manage and protect your organization's data? What are the practical effects on your compliance efforts or your approaches to meeting discovery and other data-related obligations? Hear from Barnes & Thornburg counsel on key highlights of the year to help you prepare for 2018.
