

Jonathan Cisneros assists entity clients of virtually all forms and sizes as they navigate through complex transactions and deals. He is a problem-solver and willing to go the extra mile for clients. As a corporate attorney, he works hard to help clients reach their goals in an efficient and effective manner.

Jonathan works with clients to help them navigate every turn of their corporate needs including entity formation, corporate governance matters, securities, and mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to joining the firm full-time, Jonathan was a summer associate and law clerk at Barnes & Thornburg, where he assisted clients with a wide variety of corporate matters. He also served as a law clerk at another Indiana law firm, where he drafted litigation documents and court motions and conducted legal research across a wide array of legal areas. In addition to his summer associate and law clerk experience, Jonathan was a legal intern for Indiana Legal Services and Indiana University's Student Legal Services.

During law school, Jonathan served as Note Development Editor for the Indiana Law Review. He was also involved as an active member of both Phi Delta Phi (an international legal honor society) and the Hispanic Law Society.

He also gained valuable experience while working at the Reutlingen International Office at Reutlingen University in Germany.
