In the latest edition of this ongoing series, leaders from our nationwide Wage and Hour Practice Group will discuss the up-to-the-minute observations and insights derived from COVID-19 related workplace litigation, regulations and more. The speakers will examine the lessons employers can learn from these cases, as well as new and updated rules and guidance. With an emphasis on practical guidance for employers, our team will address:

- Insights on the evolving return-to-work situation, including updates on mandatory vaccinations and screening
- Guidance from the CDC, OSHA and EEOC on COVID-19 issues
- An overview of COVID-19 litigation trends, including updates on cases involving novel claims associated with the pandemic

- Do's and don'ts: Lessons learned from COVID-19 related litigation and other developments

The webinar will feature breakout sessions and Q&A. You may ask questions during the Q&A or submit them when you register.
