

Senate Rejects Republican Efforts To Overturn NLRB Union Election Rules

April 25, 2012 | | Labor And Employment

We recently reported that The White House was threatening to veto legislation aimed at overturning a controversial rule promulgated by the NLRB aimed at speeding up union elections. No need. The Senate has rejected a Republican led attempt to overturn the new regulations. The defeat in the Senate was hailed by several unions including the Teamsters.

The Washington Post's story can be accessed here.

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Labor and Employment
Labor Relations