DALLAS – On Nov. 26, Barnes & Thornburg client, EverlyWell, made an appearance on ABC's Shark Tank. The Austin, Texas, startup offers a suite of physician-reviewed at-home lab tests without a lab visit or an in-person doctor referral. EverlyWell was named the Best New Startup of the year in 2017 by Rock Health and is led by Julia Taylor Cheek, named the number one female entrepreneur to watch in 2017 by CIO Magazine.

Barnes & Thornburg has advised EverlyWell in the areas of intellectual property and data privacy, as well as advising them on navigating the complex healthcare regulatory environment. The team, consisting of attorneys from multiple offices and practice areas, includes Thomas Haskins, partner in the Dallas office, Charles Schultz, partner in the Chicago office, and Jason Bernstein, partner in the Atlanta office.

With more than 600 attorneys and other legal professionals, Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from 13 offices in Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas, Delaware, Indiana, Los Angeles, Michigan, Minneapolis, Ohio, and Washington, D.C.
