I AM...

- Still a child of the '60s and ready to fight for the disadvantaged
- The daughter of immigrants
- Someone who was able to shake hands with and hug President Obama and Michelle Obama
- An advocate for the special needs community
- Newly appointed to the executive committee for the Southern Ohio Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church of America
- Someone who appeared on stage in over 20 locally produced musicals – back row is a great place to be for any dancing!
- A registered voter who has worked the polls, registered people to vote and been active in campaigns
- Married to a public school educator and parent to another
- A military brat
- Someone who met their husband in choir and continues to sing in choir with him
