Michael C.
Zogby
Partner

Mike Zogby, co-chair of Barnes & Thornburg's Trial and Global Disputes practice group and partner-in-charge of the New Jersey and Philadelphia offices, will moderate a panel discussion at the Product Liability Advisory Council (PLAC) 2024 Spring Conference at the Conrad Nashville.

Mike is a member of the PLAC board of directors and amicus case selection committee. The panel, "Amicus Program – 2023 Year in Review: Hot Topics, Developments and Emerging Issues," will discuss emerging risks and legal challenges facing the current product liability litigation and regulatory landscape. Various professionals, including Paul Alarcón of Bowman & Brooke LLP; L. Michael Brooks, Jr. of Wells, Anderson & Race, LLC; David R. Geiger of Foley Hoag LLP; Jonathan M. Hoffman of MB Law Group LLP; and Wendy F. Lumish of Bowman & Brooke LLP, will serve on the panel, allowing for a variety of perspectives and a well-rounded discussion.

PLAC is the foremost specialty bar association that brings together a global, diverse, select network of the leading manufacturing, technology, pharma and medical device, automotive, chemical, and consumer product professionals who help domestic and multinational companies stay at the forefront of emerging issues.

Barnes & Thornburg is proud to sponsor the 2024 Spring Conference.
