Two Barnes & Thornburg California Lawyers Profiled By L.A. Times Brand Publishing

April 2, 2021 | Los Angeles | San Diego

LOS ANGELES – Two Barnes & Thornburg lawyers have been named as Banking and Finance Visionaries in the inaugural issue of Banking and Finance Magazine produced by Los Angeles Times Brand Publishing.

Carolyn Hunt, a partner in the firm's Los Angeles office, and Troy Zander, partner in charge of the firm's San Diego office, both were profiled in the March 2021 issue after being nominated and selected by their industry peers and readers.

Hunt is a member of the firm's national Entertainment, Media and Sports Practice Group, where she focuses her practice on media finance and entertainment transactional matters, with an emphasis on motion picture and television projects.

A member of the firm's Corporate Department, Zander concentrates his practice on representing lenders and companies in documenting technology, life sciences and middle-market financing transactions, including traditional commercial leveraged debt financings, venture debt financings and bridge loans.

With more than 700 attorneys and other legal professionals, Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from offices in Atlanta, California, Chicago, Delaware, Indiana, Michigan, Minneapolis, New York, Ohio, Raleigh, Salt Lake City, Texas and Washington, D.C.
