

Trial and appellate lawyer Dylan Pittman serves governmental entities and businesses involved in all levels of state and federal litigation. Whether on offense or defense, Dylan assists in strategizing and formulating arguments to help his clients go the distance.

Dylan focuses his practice on governmental law, appeals and business litigation. He has represented governmental entities and businesses within Indiana and beyond, litigating claims involving a wide range of procedural contexts, including the defense of complex class actions.

Before joining the firm, Dylan spent two years as a law clerk to the Honorable Chief Justice Loretta Rush of the Indiana Supreme Court. Dylan also gained experience as a summer associate at Barnes & Thornburg, a law clerk at the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission, and a judicial extern for the Honorable Sarah Evans Barker of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana.

Before launching his legal career, Dylan worked as an assistant English teacher near Seville, Spain.
