

Paralegal Molly Stewart is valued for being highly organized and a skilled communicator, allowing her to support attorneys and clients across a range of business and transactional matters.

Molly assists the firm's M&A and investment fund attorneys with data room management, due diligence, and closing and post-closing compliance. She prepares and files domestic and foreign corporate documents, including formations, organizational and operating agreements, foreign qualifications, and UCC financing statements.

Well-versed in reporting and disclosure obligations under Sections 13 and 16 of the Exchange Act and Regulation D of the Securities Act, Molly tracks clients' filing obligations under these reporting regimes and drafts and files Schedules 13G and 13D; as well as Forms 13F, 13H, 3, 4, 5 and D.

With experience in debt, equity and claims trading, Molly also drafts a variety of transactional documents, including assignments, participations, purchase and sale agreements, bilateral and multilateral nettings, proceeds letters and related ancillary documents.

Prior to joining Barnes & Thornburg, Molly was with Kibbe & Orbe LLP.
