The last several months have put into focus the importance of ensuring the fundamentals of a corporate contract are in place to keep your company protected. However, we are seeing case after case in which contracts have simply missed the mark – and as a result, many companies are headed to court in a problematic position.

Members of Barnes & Thornburg's nationwide Corporate and Litigation Departments will break down the essentials of corporate contracts with a keen eye toward avoiding litigation or, if taken down that path, requisites for coming out on top.

The webinar will feature a Q&A session. Attendees may ask questions during the Q&A or submit them at registration.

1.0 Hour CLE Credit Pending.
