SPEAKERS

Laurian Cristea
Partner

Laurian Cristea will moderate a panel discussion, Trade and Clear: How Futures Markets Work, hosted by The Chicago Bar Association's Futures & Derivatives Law Committee. The panelists will address market structure, including a comparison of traditional exchanges and clearinghouses to crypto exchanges, the importance of future commission merchants, and direct-to-retail models.

This event is a hybrid program with a webcast and in-person option. Registrants can indicate whether they will attend in person or virtually through the registration form.
