

I AM BARNES & THORNBURG

SPOTLIGHTS

Tanisha Bishop: I Am Barnes & Thornburg

February 1, 2020 | Los Angeles

I AM...

- Born in Gary, Indiana, raised in Los Angeles, California, and am the oldest of four children
- Truly blessed to be married to Stan, my rock and partner for life who continues to inspire me to grow as a better person
- A firm believer in people having the right to worship any dominion or religion but not allowing the views of others to affect my own
- A UC Santa Cruz alum who strongly supports black feminist beliefs that race, gender and socioeconomic status are interconnected
- A trustworthy, loyal friend who cherishes friendships and grateful to have a sister who is also my best-friend
- A person who gets seasick and carsick, but loves amusement park rides that typically spin
- An Audible book lover who enjoys listening to a good story during a long commute
- A huge fan of '80s conscious hip-hop and Queen Latifah, the best female lyricist of all time
- A person who always has a good time at a nightclub line-dancing and will stay on the dance floor until I master the routine
- Someone who loves mom-and-pop style restaurants and a buffalo wings fanatic

This profile appeared in the February 2020 edition of I Am Barnes & Thornburg.

View the full publication.