How To Document Witness Communications In A Harassment Investigation

DATE

April 10, 2018

SPEAKERS

William A. Nolan
Partner

In the second of our “How To” series focusing on the nuts and bolts of common employee legal issues, we will focus on the finer points of the documentation an employer should create in the course of a harassment investigation (big or small) to best protect itself from future claims – both from the complainant and the accused. We will work through a specific scenario and sample documents for attendees’ consideration.
