On Jan. 1, 2020, the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) will go into effect, changing the data protection landscape in California and beyond. It is sure to impact countless companies located in and outside of the fifth largest economy in the world.

The most comprehensive consumer privacy legislation in U.S. history will create substantial new consumers' rights regarding personal information and will impose various data protection tasks on businesses.

Register for our final CCPA webinar in 2019 and learn about recent developments, amendments and, particularly, the proposed implementation regulations released on Oct. 10 by the California governor and the impact they might have on your organization.
