Nicholas Galbraith, Adetayo Osuntogun, Luis Arandia and Christine Sohar Henter presented a webinar “It's Not Just Oligarchs and Superyachts – How to Navigate the Maze of U.S. Sanctions on Russia and Belarus,” hosted by Federal Publication Seminars. With nearly 100 attendees, many companies participated to make sense of the new Russian sanctions and export restrictions that change daily. The presenters summarized the crucial new rules to date, highlighted certain anticipated changes, and reviewed practical exercises to facilitate a roundtable discussion for applying the new rules to real-world company scenarios.
