Barnes & Thornburg Attorney Named To Crain's Chicago Business Notable Black Leaders & Executives List

January 10, 2022 | Chicago

CHICAGO— Lindsey D.G. Dates, a partner in the Chicago office of Barnes & Thornburg, has been named to the 2021 Crain's Chicago Business Notable Black Leaders & Executives List, which honors those who are making a difference in contributing to the Chicago-area's Black community.

Dates, who is a member of the firm's litigation department, is deeply involved in working with the Black community. He created and currently serves as the chair of the Don Hubert Scholars Program, a mock-trial competition for at-risk, minority boys. Additionally, he has created the Black Boy Joy experience, a one-day event that consists of seminars, workshops, fun, and games for at-risk minority boys.

Dates also has had a great impact on diversity at law firms by launching two groundbreaking programs – the Pathway to Partnership Program and the Pathway to Equity Program.

Crain's Chicago honored Dates and others in the Dec. 13 edition.

With more than 700 attorneys and other legal professionals, Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from offices in Atlanta, Boston, California, Chicago, Delaware, Indiana, Michigan, Minneapolis, New York, Ohio, Raleigh, Salt Lake City, Texas and Washington, D.C.
