Inskeep Presented With 2016 Oak Leaf Award

June 23, 2016 | Indianapolis

Ken Inskeep of the Indianapolis office was presented with the 2016 Oak Leaf Award, a national award presented by The Nature Conservancy (TNC), during the Volunteer Leadership Summit in Washington, D.C., on June 23. Ken is a life trustee of TNC, which is a leading conservation organization working around the world to conserve the lands and waters on which all life depends. Ken and the firm do a significant amount of pro bono work for the organization. The Oak Leaf Award recognizes the best of TNC's volunteer leaders and is given to individuals whose selfless efforts have significantly advanced TNC's local, divisional and global priorities.
