School may be out, but the data privacy and security threats facing schools, staff, and students have only increased. Join Barnes & Thornburg attorneys Jason Bernstein and Adam Gajadharsingh for the first of two 90-minute webinars that will address these issues, especially as schools are formulating plans to reopen. In the first webinar, they will:

- Provide an overview of the current data privacy and security landscape
- Discuss emerging issues, such as tracking of student data and video conferencing dangers

- Outline strategies and practical tips for good cyber “hygiene”

The webinar will feature a Q&A session. You may ask questions during the Q&A or submit them when you register.

The second webinar, Tuesday, July 28, will explore the types of data attacks facing schools today, how to prevent them, and what to do if it happens to you. Please join us for an important discussion of these topical issues.
