Indianapolis Star - "Dream Of Indianapolis Homeless Rehabilitation Center Becomes Reality"

January 2, 2017 | Indianapolis

Bill Moreau of the Indianapolis office was quoted in an Indianapolis Star article entitled "Dream of Indianapolis homeless rehabilitation center becomes reality," published on Jan. 2. Bill is chair of the board of directors for the Reuben Engagement Center (REC), which is the first facility in the city aimed at providing services to homeless individuals experiencing drug, alcohol and/or mental health episodes that would otherwise cause them to be incarcerated or hospitalized. At the ribbon-cutting ceremony led by Indianapolis Mayor Joe Hogsett, Bill addressed the crowd of 200 people, many of whom have been working for decades to create such a facility. The firm will be permanently recognized on the dedication plaque.
