Small businesses and nonprofits affected by COVID-19 may be eligible for up to $2 million in SBA Disaster Assistance Loans.

Barnes & Thornburg attorneys will discuss this loan program and review the process and documents required for applying for a loan, as well as assess the practical business implications for businesses seeking SBA assistance. Updates will be provided on additional SBA programs that may be available to small businesses dealing with COVID-19's effects. The session will feature an extended Q&A.
