

As a dedicated transactional attorney with a business focus, Carlos Alferez brings valuable perspective and understanding to commercial real estate transactions. Carlos is committed to understanding evolving objectives and devising tailored strategies that help clients reach their business goals.

With a keen eye for detail and strong communication skills, Carlos focuses on commercial real estate transactions. He collaborates closely with clients, including REITs, lenders, and investment firms, guiding them through the challenges of real estate endeavors, commercial lending and corporate/business issues. Drawing on his prior experience in real estate and foreclosures, he offers valuable insights and innovative solutions that combine legal acumen with business acuity.
