No Union, Then No NLRB, Right? Wrong

Adam Bartrom, Barnes & Thornburg, will provide an update on recent NLRB issues that affect non-unionized workforces and related issues.

They're Almost Here! Practical Suggestions on the New FLSA Regulations

Mark Scudder, Barnes & Thornburg, will address the changes to the white collar exemptions under the FLSA that take effect on December 1 and offer practical tips for employers adjusting to the new rules.

The Same Old Title VII, or Is It?

Jason Clagg, Barnes & Thornburg, will discuss recent developments under Title VII, including new case law, agency guidance, and proposed legislation addressing sexual orientation and transgender issues. The discussion will cover a variety of matters facing employers, such as restroom access, allegations of harassment, and more.

OSHA Forecast: Storms on the Horizon

Mark Kittaka, Barnes & Thornburg, will discuss OSHA's new mandatory electronic recordkeeping rules as well as the new prohibitions on mandatory post-accident drug testing policies, safety incentive programs and retaliation. Mark will cover the increased fines (78%) as well.

Please join us to learn more about and to discuss these ever-changing issues affecting your workplace.
