Get the latest on ESG regulatory updates, market developments and more.

Don't miss out on the latest developments in ESG. Join our ESG specialists for updates on ESG regulations, what's going on in the market, and more.

Chris McClure, partner and ESG services leader at Crowe, and Carrie Raver and Bruce White, partners at Barnes & Thornburg, will provide recent updates on ESG regulations and market developments. They will cover the recent launch of new standards from the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB) and what the new standards could mean for your business. Plus, they'll dive into the details on directors and officers (D&O) liability insurance and discuss how it intersects with evolving ESG-related disclosure risks and opportunities.

After attending this session, you should be able to:

- Provide updates on key regulations and market developments
- Discuss the new standards from the ISSB
- Identify how D&O insurance intersects with evolving ESG-related disclosure risks and opportunities

This session is recommended for 1.0 hour of CPE credit.

Who should attend? Board members, executives, risk managers, ESG leaders and team members, and legal counsel.
