Immigration and Global Mobility Webinar Series

During this webinar, our panelists will review some of the key trends and decisions that impacted U.S. immigration in 2023 and their implications for 2024. Our panelists will also cover some of the key issues in this space that employers and immigrants should be considering in 2024, an election year. Topics to be covered during this webinar include:

- The rollout of the new U.S. State Department pilot domestic visa revalidation program and potential expansion of this pilot in 2024
- USCIS's new proposed H-1B regulation and whether it will be implemented before this year's H-1B lottery

- The Department of Labor's expansion of the Schedule A occupation list and what this means for employers
- The DOJ IER's aggressive investigation of U.S. companies conducting PERM recruitments and utilizing third-party recruitment platforms
- Trends in I-9 enforcement
