On Sept. 27, the Columbus office hosted more than 40 in-house counsel for the CLE program entitled "9 Timely Legal Issues Every In-House Counsel Needs to Sound Smart About." Firm presenters included Tabitha Meier of the Indianapolis office, Meena Sinfelt of the Washington, D.C., office, and Brian Downey, Bill Nolan and Doug Oldham of the Columbus office. Attendees included representatives of firm clients AEP, Battelle, Hexion, Honda and Wendy's. Because of the great turnout, the office repurposed its main reception space into a bright, comfortable presentation space.
