This one-hour webinar will provide an overview of the recent regulations announced by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Customs and Border Protection, and the Department of Treasury providing for additional guidance on the rules of origin under the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA), which replaces NAFTA.

Topics will include:

- Key differences between NAFTA and USMCA

- Rules of Origin and “De Minimis”
- Changes for automotive, textile/apparel and agricultural industries
- USMCA certifications
- Enforcement

This session is designed for anyone buying, selling or trading goods throughout the U.S., Mexico or Canada.
