

Maria Monte's practice is focused on the formation, structuring and operation of private investment funds, as well as providing advice to institutional and other investors regarding potential investments in private funds.

Maria advises private investment fund clients, including private equity funds, hedge funds, credit funds and venture funds, in virtually every step of strategic fundraising, ongoing operation and regulatory compliance. She also represents investors and potential investors in analyzing, evaluating and negotiating such investment opportunities.

With additional background in mergers and acquisitions and transactional work, Maria represents private equity and strategic clients in a range of corporate transactions and ongoing governance matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Maria worked in the Philadelphia office of a global law firm where she focused on corporate and M&A transactions. Before that, she was an associate in the private funds group of the New York office of another global law firm.
