Despite Strike, Film, TV Industry Spending In Georgia Reaches $4.1 Billion

September 14, 2023 | Atlanta

Stephen Weizenecker was quoted in an Atlanta Business Chronicle article, “Despite strike, film, TV industry spending in Georgia reaches \$4.1 billion,” regarding the size and impact of the film and television industries, even in a strike year, and the importance of Georgia’s film tax credit in maintaining industry growth. Steve is vice chair of Gov. Brian Kemp’s Film, Television, Music and Interactive Entertainment Advisory Commission and on the Film Tax Credit Advisory Commission of the Georgia Department of Revenue.
