

COPYRIGHTS

Brand Protection

Barnes & Thornburg offers a number of services in the copyright area. Firm lawyers have taught copyright law at a number of law schools. We have represented numerous creators of copyrighted works, including authors, software developers, composers, songwriters or musicians, graphic artists and designers, architects, painters, photographers and programmers.

Copyright is the law associated with creative works, such as:

- Books, periodicals and other writings
- Painting
- Photography
- Sculpture
- Films and videos
- Music
- Graphic arts
- Computer software and data is also covered, along with architectural works

Copyrights are the rights associated with such works, including the rights to:

- Reproduce (copy)

Why Barnes & Thornburg?

Finding new ways to help clients identify solutions and new business opportunities, across industries, is at our core. We are, at times, more than lawyers, we are advisers bringing new ideas to light. We understand what keeps you up at night and work collaboratively to find practical and creative solutions, at the heart of business.

RELATED PRACTICES

Intellectual Property

- Distribute
- Adapt (prepare works based on other works, or so-called "derivative works")
- Perform
- Display

We have also represented the manufacturers, distributors and users of creative works, including:

- Advertisers
- Book and magazine publishers
- Software companies
- Misc. publishers
- Record companies
- Replicators
- Fashion and novelty product manufacturers

We have represented the users of creative works, such as companies acquiring photographs or computer software. We are also prepared to help our clients when disputes or litigation arise, such as around the distribution of CDs or the use of photographs on a web site.